Maps, Toyabe,
(Geographic Names)

December 9, 1925.

Mr. James McCormick, Secretary,
U. S. Geographic Board,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. McCormick:

On October 7, 1908 the Geographic Board established the name Toyabe for a range of mountains in Nye County, Nevada. On March 1, 1922 the question was taken up again with the idea of changing the spelling back to Toiyabe, but the Board declined to reverse its previous decision. Could you look back in the records of October 7, 1908 and see on whose recommendation this change in spelling was made? The Forester has recently been taken to task somewhat by Nevada parties for this change, and we would like to know on whose suggestion it was originally made.

Very sincerely yours,

Assistant Forester.
